In lieu of receiving their distributions in cash, Canadian resident beneficial unitholders of Class A units may choose to have their distributions reinvested in additional Class A units of the Fund in accordance with the Fund's Distribution Reinvestment Plan (DRIP), providing an opportunity to benefit from compounding through reinvestment at the prevailing market value of Class A units of the Fund. There is no distribution reinvestment plan for Class U unitholders. The Fund will buy the additional Class A units on the open market. Unitholders can obtain further details of the DRIP from the Bloom Funds website (www.bloomfunds.ca). Please contact your financial institution or Investment Adviser to enroll in the DRIP.
